The Dewey Monument.

Over $5000 Raised Already—Larkin G. Mead Will Probably Be the Sculptor—Plan for an "Old Home Week" at the Time of Dedication.

Col. E. C. Benton of Boston, chairman of the Dewey monument committee, says the treasurer now has about $5000, with several sub-committees not heard from. The sub-committees are organized in every large city and notify every state in the Union. The statue will be of marble or bronze, the choice being left to Admiral Dewey.

The statue of Ethan Allen is of marble, and was made in Vermont by Larkin G. Mead, formerly of Brattleboro. Mr. Mead is now in Italy, while the Admiral was returning home the two gentlemen met at Florence. Mr. Mead, on his own responsibility, took several photographs of the Admiral and also a number of measurements of the Admiral's face features.

There is quite a general understanding that Mr. Mead is to be the sculptor.

It is the intention of the committee to erect the statue within a year, if possible. The matter of delay will be on the part of the sculptor, and not from financial reasons, says Col. Benton.

The unveiling will be made one of the greatest events in the history of Vermont. The program as now outlined is to follow the suggestion made this year by Gov. Rollins of New Hampshire and have an "old home week" in Vermont, such as New Hampshire had last August.

The matter has progressed so far that several of the sub-committees in Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago are talking of going on to Montpelier in special trains, and it is possible that special trains will be run from points much further West, so that the whole country will contribute to the occasion.

Folsom of Lyndonville, Mrs. W. P. Smith of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. J. W. Gordon of Barre, Miss S. E. Clark of Brattleboro and Mrs. S. E. Pingree of Hartford; alternates, Mrs. Hazen of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Ashton of Rutland, Mrs. Lincoln of Lyndonville, Miss Smith of Middlebury and Mrs. Stearns of Royalton.

From the Sulu Islands.

A young surgeon in the United States navy, writing to a Brattleboro friend from the Sulu Islands, gives an impression of the country different, perhaps, from that held by many people. He says:

"We have been here several days. It is wonderful. The entire Sulu archipelago is very fertile, about the best small islands in the Philippines. The people are all Mohammedans. About three centuries ago some Arabs wandered into these islands and in the Malay country and connected the entire outfit to the faith. The Sultan of Sulu is a young man and has numerous wives and slaves. Jolo, where our soldiers are, is a walled and fortified town, with very pretty groves and gardens. The Spanish never left the walls for 100 years, and were always at war. Our officers go all over the island without arms, and attend weddings, funerals, etc., all the time. The British North Borneo company is very anxious to get hold of the Sulu archipelago. Borneo is the largest island in the world, and at the same time the poorest. Even the Dutch have failed to make the colony pay in the southern half of the island, and where they fail nobody else need try."

Growing Thirsty at St. Albans.

[From the Barre Evening Telegram.]

The sales of the St. Albans liquor agency show an increase in the first eight months of this year over 1898 of $3,814.08. This is since the saloons, drug stores and hotels have gotten out of business. It shows an alarming amount of sickness in that city. The state board of health should investigate the matter at once. The fact that the Messenger advertises a certain brand of liquor as being sold at that agency may account for it, as good advertising always increases the sales.

A Great English Statesman's Secret.

It is related that the secret of a celebrated English statesman's long life was his systematic way of eating. Every bit of food put into his stomach was chewed 30 times before he swallowed it. The consequence was that his stomach never bothered him, and he naturally enjoyed good health. Most men and women bolt their food and eat things which were never intended to be eaten. They become restless, have a bad complexion, lose flesh, are irritable and nervous, and the first thing they know they are "played out," as the saying goes. It is gratifying to know that H. Stetter's Stomach Bitters overcomes and cures all stomach troubles. It is a purely vegetable medicine that has stood the test of many years. It cures cases which seem to be hopeless. Chronic sufferers from any disorder of stomach, liver, blood or bowels should try it.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"My Cyst Cure" for rheumatism and neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable, as mysterious as the cause and the disease immediately disappears. It is a first class remedy. Sold by Geo. E. Greene, druggist, Brattleboro.

"It is an Ill Wind That Blows Nobody Good."

That small ache or pain or weakness is the "ill wind" that directs your attention to the necessity of purifying your blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Then your whole body receives good, for the purified blood goes tingling to every organ. It is the great remedy for all ages and both sexes.

War in South Africa.

Conflicting Reports Received of Engagements—Mafeking and Vryburg Said to Have Surrendered—Kimberley Surrounded.

Reports of engagements between the Boers and English in South Africa have been received daily since Friday, but the wires are down and all reports lack confirmation. The first story received stated that the Boers had blown up an armored train, killing 15 British soldiers, but this statement has since been denied. The Boers have undoubtedly attacked Mafeking. One report has been received that the water supply has been cut off, and another that the city has surrendered. The London Mail had a despatch yesterday saying Vryburg had surrendered. It is known that the Boers have surrounded Kimberley, where the greatest diamond mines in the world are located, and where the British have a force of 3000 men. Cecil Rhodes, ex-premier of Cape Colony, is supposed to be shut up in Kimberley, and the Boers are said to have offered $25,000 for him, dead or alive.

A despatch received in London from Cape Town Tuesday stated that 300 Boers and 18 British have been killed in a battle at Mafeking. Col. Baden-Powell made a sortie from Mafeking in force and attacked the Boers, who were investing the town. After fierce fighting the British carried the day. From Colesburg came persistent reports of the report that the Boers have attacked Mafeking, being thrice repulsed with heavy losses. From other towns on the border similar reports are received. Refugees who arrived Tuesday at Lorenzo Marques, Portuguese East Africa, from the Transvaal reported that the Boers had been repulsed at Mafeking, sustaining heavy losses. Several other reports were received in regard to fighting near Mafeking but their accuracy is questioned.

A despatch from Kimberley, dated Monday, says that an armored train while reconnoitering near Spytfontein engaged the Boers, killing five and wounding seven. The British had no losses. The armored train, with a detachment of the Lancashire, approached unopposed until within range, when the Boers opened fire. The Maxim guns were instantly set to work and did great execution among the burghers. The latter also used artillery, but ineffectively. The armored train returned to Kimberley. The force of the armored train said the Boers fired 13 shells, but not a single shot struck the train.

The Orange Free State burghers are apparently threatening to invade Cape Colony, by way of Norval's Pont and Aliwal North, both of which are at their mercy, if they possess artillery. Saffar as is known, the only British force stationed at Aliwal North is a detachment of the Royal Berkshire regiment. Passengers arriving from Johannesburg Monday were forced to leave the train north of Norval's Pont and to make a detour through the veldt, under escort, joining the train farther south. This is understood to be due to the fact that the Boers have undermined the line.

It was reported Wednesday that the Boers were massing their forces in Natal colony, and that a battle was in progress in the neighborhood of Ladysmith. The siege of Mafeking continues, and the report that a white flag has been displayed indicates that the place may have surrendered to Kruger's forces.

The Queen has called out the whole military reserve, and an estimate of war expenses in South Africa reaches $153,000,000.

A new element in the military situation is the rising of the warlike tribe of Basutos, under Chokolo Chief against the Orange Free State.

General Lawton Advancing.

Seven out of ten Spaniards who served in a Filipino artillery command have been killed by the Filipinos because of the discovery of a plot to surrender the artillery to Gen. Otis. The three surviving Spaniards are now in hiding in Manila.

Gen. Otis has received messages purporting to come from Gen. Pio del Pilar offering to sell out his army and deliver Aguinaldo into the hands of the Americans.

Lieut. Butson's force of Macabebe scouts drove the Filipinos from their encampments at San Mateo, near Arayat, and captured a quantity of arms Wednesday. Several Filipinos, including a captain and lieutenant, were killed.

Gen. Lawton, with a stronger column, is advancing from Arayat, along the Rio Grande, toward San Isidro.
